ANNEXURE TO THE REPORT OF AUDITORS

- i) a) The Company has maintained proper records showing particulars including quantities details and situation of fixed assets as informed to us by the management. But we were not shown same for inspection and verification.
- b) All the assets have not been physically verified by the management during the year but there is a regular programme of verification which, in our opinion is reasonable having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of its assets. Hence we are not in a position to give out opinion.
- c) During the earlier year, the Company has disposed off a substantial part of the plant and machinery i.e. dies and moulds. During the year the company has sold its Land & Building which has adversely affected its going concern status. According to the information and explanations given to us, we are of the opinion that the sale of the said part of plant and machinery may affect the going concern status of the Company. The company has done no production in last five years. We are of the opinion that the Company cannot be considered as going concern.
- ii) a) There was no activity in nature of manufacturing or trading hence verification of inventory was not conducted by us.
- b) There are no procedures of physical verification of inventories followed by the management which are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the company and the nature of its business.
- c) The Company has not maintained records of inventory in absence of any activity or inventory.
- iii) a) The Company has given inter corporate loans and other interest free loans & advances in the nature of loans to employees and others to the tune of Rs. 85,76,375/- who are not repaying the principal amounts and no interest is received by the company during the previous years. In view of non receipt of loans and advances to the tune mentioned above, the amount should be provided for and accordingly the loss should be reflected in Profit & Loss Account. This amount should be treated as written off.

- iv) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are no adequate internal control procedures at present which needs to be improved to commensurate with the size of the company and the nature of its business with regard to purchases of inventory, fixed assets and with regard to the sale of goods and for recovery of loans and advances and interest thereto.
- v) a) According to the information and explanations given to us, we are of the opinion that the transactions that need to be entered into the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act 1956 have been so entered.
b) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the transactions made in pursuance of contracts or arrangements entered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956 and exceeding the value of rupees five lakhs in respect of any party during the year have been made at prices which are reasonable having regard to prevailing market prices at the relevant time.
- vi) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has complied with the provisions of section 58A and 58AA of the Companies Act 1956 and the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 1975 with regard to the deposits accepted from the public.
- vii) In our opinion, the company has no internal audit system commensurate with the size and nature of its business.
- viii) We have broadly reviewed the books of account relating to materials, labour and other terms of cost maintained by the company pursuant to the Rules made by the Central Government for the maintenance of cost records under section 209 (1) (d) of the Companies Act, 1956 and we are of the opinion that prima facie the prescribed accounts and records have been made and maintained.
- ix) a) The Company is regular in depositing with appropriate authorities undisputed statutory dues including provident fund, investor educating protection fund, employees state insurance, income tax, sales tax, wealth tax, custom duty, cess and other material statutory dues applicable to it.
b) According to the information and explanations given to us, no undisputed amounts payable in respect of Income Tax, Wealth Tax & ASSOCIATED

Sales Tax, Customs Duty, excise duty and cess were in arrear for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

- c) According to the information and explanations given to us, there are no dues of sales tax, income tax, custom duty, wealth tax, excise duty and cess which have not been deposited on account of any dispute.
- x) In our opinion, the accumulated losses of the Company are more than fifty percent of its net worth. Hence the Company is a sick Company. The Company has incurred cash losses during the financial year covered by our audit and the immediately preceding financial year. However, if the loans and advances investment are not written off than the company will become a sick company.
- xi) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the company has not defaulted in repayment of dues to a financial institution, bank or debenture holders.
- xii) We are of the opinion that the company has not maintained adequate records where the company has granted loans and advances on the basis of security by way of pledge of shares, debentures and other securities.
